

Certification

As an entrepreneur, you guarantee that your products, services, personnel and processes comply with laws and regulations concerning safety, efficiency, control and sustainability. But how can you convince potential customers, business owners or clients of these good intentions - today, tomorrow and into the future? With a certificate!

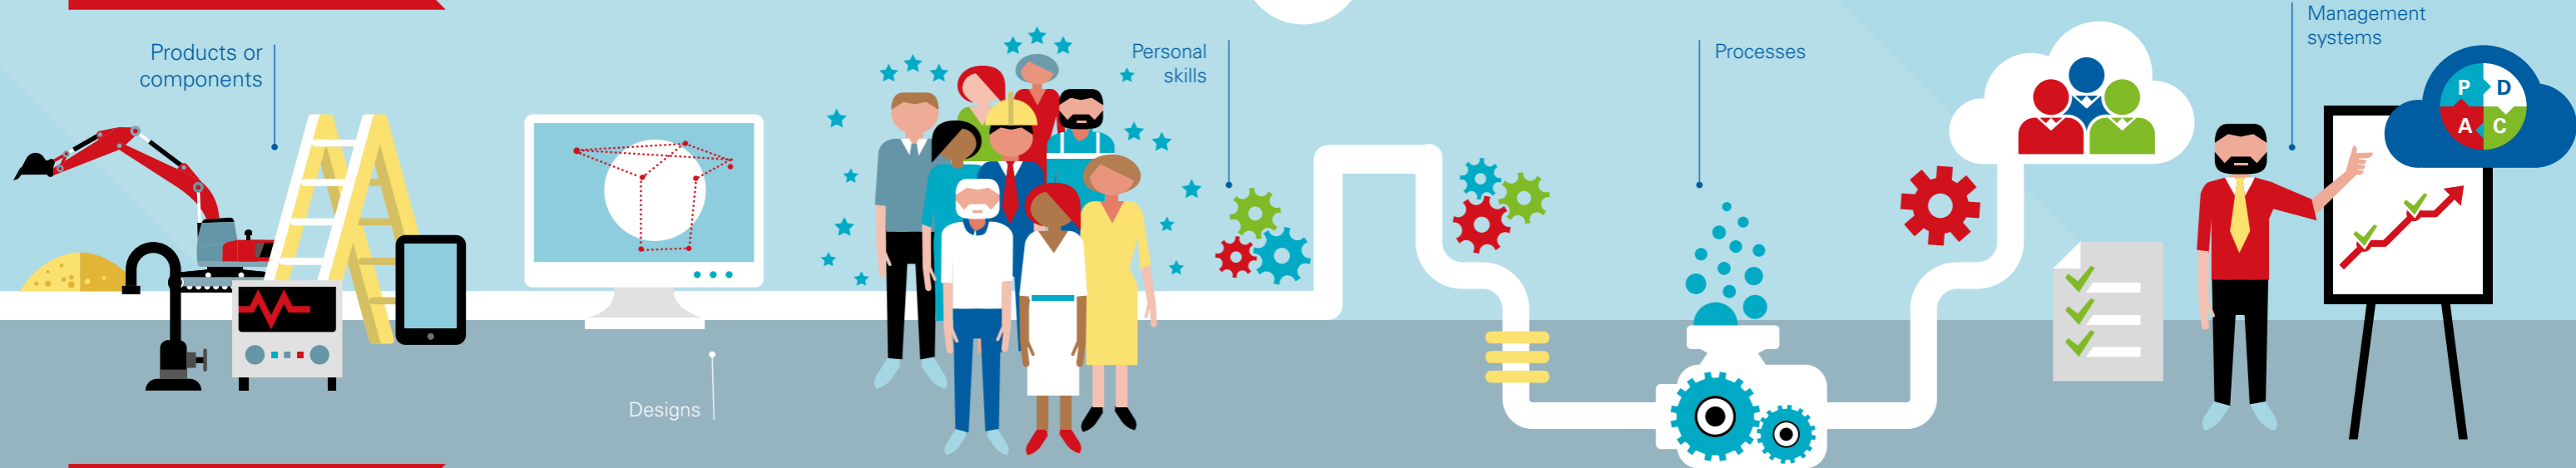

What certification is

Certification independently confirms characteristics of a product, process, person or organisation. Kiwa's certificates and reports offer reliable, impartial, objective and internationally recognised evidence.

The process

Independence

We act as an independent third party when certifying. As an additional layer of trust, we are being assessed by the Accreditation Council and European accreditation institutions on a regular basis as well.
